

CHIEF

Collaborative Health Information European Framework

More comparable health data and indicators, through collaboration and privacy-enhanced analytics

A shared framework for non-communicable disease surveillance across Europe

20

experts

engaged across the project

11

European countries

in the expert network

13

final deliverables

across 5 areas of work

9

meetings held

6 expert · 3 stakeholder

Five areas of work

13 final outputs, from indicator definition to data governance

01

Indicators and FAIR foundations

Metadata, definitions and the Diabetes Indicators Core Set

3 deliverables

02

Privacy-enhanced analytics and methods

Frameworks, studies, source assessment and contextualisation

5 deliverables

03

Patient involvement

Review and roadmap for registries and participatory platforms

1 deliverable

04

Privacy, governance and interoperability

Data protection, ethics, linkage and DIGA assessment

3 deliverables

05

Closing synthesis

CHIEF Final Report

1 deliverable

Coordination and exchange

6

expert meetings held from the first Annual Meeting (2022) through October 2026

3 stakeholder meetings held

including technical summits and IDF / EUDF events

Final meeting held at JRC Ispra

12–13 October 2026

Romagna diabetes field test

Incidence and care indicators reported as aggregated, anonymised tables

Scientific output

5

CHIEF papers published

2

manuscripts submitted · 2026

3

associated papers

Published themes

Privacy-enhanced analytics · FAIR foundations
DIGA · indicator taxonomy · CHIEF framework

Associated themes

Data quality · semantics · regional registry